MARINERS INN

The mission of Mariners Inn is to provide 24-hour, residential, substance abuse treatment for homeless men of Southeastern Michigan, in a professional, compassionate, therapeutic environment conducive to reducing their problems of drug and alcohol addiction, thereby promoting their return to health, independence and increased self-worth.

We provide housing, food and substance abuse treatment for over 500 men each year. Our core programs are:

- Residential Treatment Program
- Transitional Housing Program
- Family Therapy Program
- Mariners Extended Residency Program
- Mariners Career Initiative Center Program
- Strengthening Families Program
- Alumni Program
- Alcohol Highway and Safety Program
