MARINERS INN HOMELESS SHELTER AND REHABILITATION FACILITY TO HOST RIVER RHYTHM CHARITY EVENT

Detroit: Mariners Inn, a homeless shelter and rehabilitation facility, is hosting the 21st anniversary of the River Rhythm dinner and auction on Friday, November 6, 2009. This annual event will be held at the Roostertail, 100 Marquette Drive, Detroit 48214. Entertainment will be provided by Rayse Biggs. River Rhythm is the center's premier fundraising effort.

Mariners Inn is a non-profit, 24-hour, residential substance abuse facility for homeless men. The agency provides free shelter and substance abuse recovery services to men from across the state. The men participate in individual/group therapy, daily work details and vocational counseling. We help them learn to live an independent life filled with dignity and purpose. At Mariners, men get the help they need to return to society clean, sober and eager to support their families and our community.

Several outstanding individuals will receive awards for their tireless efforts to support homeless men in recovery. Dean Elliott has been selected to receive the Community Beacon award for his time and commitment to our clients. Samuel Abrams has been selected to receive the Anchor of the Year award for his outstanding commitment to Mariners Inn Board of Trustees.

Tickets for the semi-formal event cost $125 per person and are tax deductible. For more information, please contact Mariners Inn at (313) 962-9446 ext. 230 or visit us on the web at www.marinersinn.org
